

Curriculum commitments

- Broad and balance range of subjects and content
- Achieve the best possible outcomes for all pupils
- Read classic and modern literature, build an expansive vocabulary
- Exciting trips and visits

Curriculum commitments

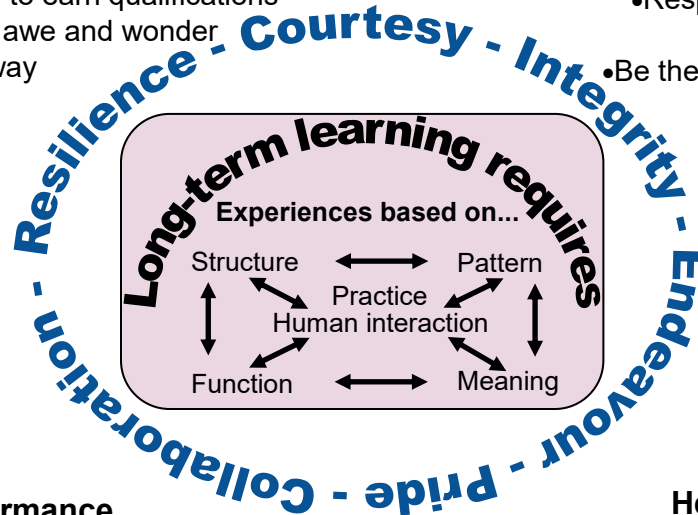

- Learn about diversity of people and places
- Learn about courageous people
- Apply my language skills to debate ideas

Powerful knowledge

- Liberation from insularity
- Great experiences, great thinkers, great works
- Equality of opportunity to earn qualifications
- Look at the world with awe and wonder
- Language is the gateway to learning

Justice

- Analyse and interrogate the world through academics, literature, the arts and sport
- Respect and value diversity
- Courage to speak out
- Be the change you want to be

Creativity and performance

- Courage to try
- Use talents to inspire others
- Persevere the face of difficulty

Healthy relationships

- Empathy through exceptional pastoral care
- Keep safe in real life and online
- Healthy mind and healthy body
- Access to outdoor space

Curriculum commitments

- Curriculum values the arts and sports as well as academics
- Opportunities to read aloud and recite literature
- Showcase our achievements in the arts and sports
- Curriculum includes risk-taking and managing risk

Curriculum commitments

- Pupils have a voice our learning
- Become good citizens and important members of our community
- Opportunity to work through ups-and-downs of relationships